

NASCA National Forum – Draft Programme (as at 11-6-13)

Wednesday September 4th 2012

8.15	Registrations open	Tea and Coffee available. Make a point of arriving early for coffee and to mix and mingle before the forum begins
9.15	Opening
9.30	Plenary	Paul Gibson- Disability Human Rights Commissioner
10.15	Morning tea
10.35	Plenary sessions	Refugee and migrant wellbeing in NASC environment Poverty in the health and disability sector
12.10	Lunch
	Streams	Stream 1 Focus on Older People	Stream 2 Focus on Mental Health	Stream 3 Focus on Disability
1.00	Concurrent sessions	Legal issues – Enduring Power of Attorney and Privacy Using technology to assist in client safety Advance Care Planning	Legal Highs	Vulnerability & abuse Resilience Self-Advocacy
3.15	Afternoon tea
3.35	Concurrent sessions	Member presentations on best practice initiatives	Member presentations on best practice initiatives	Western BOP demonstration NASC Enabling Good Lives Choices in Community Living
4.45	End of day
5.00	NASCA AGM
6.30	Drinks Cash bar
7.00	Dinner and entertainment

NASCA National Forum – Draft Programme (as at 11-6-13)

NASCA National Forum – Draft Programme (as at 11-6-13)

Thursday September 5th 2013

8.30	Notices and welcomes
		Streams 1 and 2		Stream 3 Focus on Disability
8.40	Concurrent sessions	Working with Maori		Catherine Bennett -Ministry of Health- New Model Overview
9.30	Plenary session	Jo Goodhew - Associate Minister of Health
10.00	Morning tea
		Stream 1 Focus on Older People	Stream 2 Focus on Mental Health	Stream 3 Focus on Disability
10.20 - 12.10	Concurrent sessions -	InterRAI	Challenges in Mental Health	New NASC initiatives including: Navigation
12.10	Lunch
1.00	Plenary sessions	Cha Chua -National Director, National Health Board Leadership
3.15 - 3.30pm	Closing

Dress Code is smart casual throughout, including for dinner

Details of accommodation options for you to book in Wellington can be found on www.wellingtonnz.com

Te Papa is open till 9pm on Thursdays if participants wish to visit and catch a later (and often cheaper) flight home.