

Presenter Ross Judge, Principal Policy Analyst Ministry of Health, Health of Older People

Title A Ministry of Health perspective on Aged Care

Abstract

I will discuss the effects of an aging population on the future of Older People services. The role of the Ministry of Health will be explored as will the issues the Ministry of Health is concentrating on.

Biography

Ross is an Economist by training and has been in his current role at the Ministry of Health for 4 years. Prior to this he had worked in various roles in the Treasury for 22 years, then moving to Ministry of Social Development Strategic Policy Group where he spent the next 6 years.